Esperimental Jetset

00. introduction

In June 2005, Esperimental Jetset was asked to present a lecture on their work during 16th International Poster and Graphic Arts Festival. This lecture consisted of a mixed CD of nine songs and a booklet outlining each song while telling a story about graphic design.

This book is set up in a similar fashion. Each of the five sections is based on a song from the original lecture as it pertains to EJ's work. Like the lecture, this book also includes a CD of each of the songs for your listening pleasure as you peruse the book. Enjoy.
